In response to the Restriction Requirement mailed March 12, 2002, Applicant elects, with traverse, Species I (claims 24-48). Applicant requests reconsideration and respectfully asserts that Species I is generic with respect to Species II. That is, the bipolar junction transistor is one type of semiconductor devices of Species I. This assertion is supported on page 7, lines 27 – 29 and at page 8 lines 8- 10 of the present divisional application. Moreover, Applicant is entitled to consideration of claims of a species which include the limitation of an allowed generic claim as provided by 35 C.F.R. 1.141. In particular, Applicant asserts species claim 49 includes all the limitations of generic claim 38 of the present application.
